TAYLOR FIRE DEPARTMENT RESPONDS TO FIRE AT DURCON

TAYLOR, Texas – The Taylor Fire Department responded to reports of a fire at Durcon, 206 Allison Road, at 7:53 p.m. on Saturday, December 21. The fire is still active and units from the Round Rock Fire Department, Georgetown Fire Department, Hutto Fire Department, and Pflugerville Fire Department also responded and are still on the scene and making progress.

First units arrived on the scene and observed a fire on the roof of the building. Units were able to extinguish all exterior fire, but are currently trying to locate the fire inside the building. The 2400 block of East Fourth Street is currently closed to traffic in both directions. Officials have asked that onlookers please stay out of the way while the firefighters perform their duties.

For questions, please contact the Taylor Communications Department at 713-456-9429.
